

Jefferson County Industrial Development Agency
Public Hearing Minutes
June 24, 2021

The Jefferson County Industrial Development Agency held a public hearing at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, June 24, 2021, at its offices at 800 Starbuck Avenue, Watertown, New York, and virtually via Zoom (per guidance from Governor Andrew M. Cuomo during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic) for enhancements to its "Uniform Tax Exemption Policy".

Staff: David Zembiec, CEO; Marshall Weir, Deputy CEO; Peggy Sampson, Executive Assistant

Present: Audrey Stevenson, Indian River School District; Jenna Ritz and Josh Hartshorne from the Watertown City School District

Mr. Zembiec opened the hearing at 9:30 a.m. and read the public hearing notice and public hearing rules.

Mr. Zembiec said that the UTEP was reorganized and more specifically details renewable energy projects.

Mr. Zembiec asked for public comment. There was no public comment.

At 9:33 a.m., Mr. Zembiec closed the hearing.

David Zembiec
Hearing Officer